

NKPR gains three real estate accounts

NKPR of Toronto has recently gained three new real estate clients. Vandyk Properties has retained the agency to undertake a redevelopment of its brand. The assignment also includes communications support for new projects and digital media activities. The company specializes in developing townhomes, high-rise condominiums and single-family homes.

SaleFish has hire NKPR to conduct its media relations, corporate partnership development and brand development. The company produces software and mobile applications for residential real estate developers and builders.

Fusion Homes has hired the agency to increase awareness of its brand. The assignment includes media relations, brand development and digital media activities. The company specializes in home building in southwestern Ontario.

August 7, 2020

